

Mentoring

Grow professionally while making a difference to a child's life

Kids Inspire is looking for volunteer mentors to commit to 1 hour a week to being a positive role model to a child (aged 8+)

All mentors will receive professional training from trauma specialists and child psychotherapists

"Comprehensive online training - great preparation for the role ahead." Chelsea, Mentor

-
-  Professional training
 -  Low-level support
 -  Monthly supervision
 -  Online mentoring options
 -  Access to 'trauma informed tools'
 -  Short or long-term opportunities*

The relationship aims to build confidence and resilience, and improve emotional wellbeing

Contact us for further details, or to apply:
mentoring@kidsinspire.org.uk 01245348707

*Flexible online short (20-weeks) or long-term (up to a year) opportunities available.
We ask for a commitment of 1-year following training.

kidsinspire.org.uk